COMMERCE OF THE ATLANTIC CITIES.—

The foreign commerce of Baltimore and Philadelphia is said to be constantly declining, and narrowing every year in its operations. Only about forty ships are owned in Philadelphia, and not one Indianan goes from either city. New York still grows with giant strides, and the foreign commerce of Boston in 1857, in amount of imports will exceed that of any previous year. The great China, East India, Pacific, Russian, Mediterranean, South American and West India trades, are all controlled in those two cities to a great extent; and it leaves for Philadelphia and Baltimore a very narrow circle of ports, such as the British West Indies, Brazil, Cuba, Holland and England. The winter embargo of the cities of Philadelphia and Baltimore has operated very unfavorably on their commercial prospects.

"Negro slavery we hold to be right, to be just, and for the benefit of the negro as well as the white man."

The N. Y. Day-Book must be a journal of rare ethics, "democracy," and Christianity.—The above is a specimen of its quality.

Now what if somebody should turn the tables upon the Day-Book, somewhat in this style, viz.—The slavery of fools and ruffians "we hold to be right, to be just and for the benefit" of the foolish and ruffian classes, as well as the wise and honest part of the community! And suppose this beautiful theory were reduced to practice.

Does not the author of the above extract clearly perceive that his occupation, as a writer for the Day-Book would be gone,—and that there would be an immense goose-yoke fastened for life upon his own miserable neck? We do.

Another elegant appointment by President Buchanan—and, showing how thoroughly his sympathies are with the Border Ruffian enemies of free speech and freedom in the territories,—is that of the "honorable" Fayette Mc-Mullin, late member of Congress from Virginia, to be Governor of Washington territory. This Mc-Mullin is the same brute that committed a personal assault upon the Hon. Amos P. Granger, a venerable and estimable Republican representative from New York, about a year ago—not liking Gen. Granger's freedom of utterance on the slavery question.

Hon. Louis McLane, arrived in this city yesterday morning and is residing at the Filmore House.

NICARAGUA.—General Walker, accompanied by Colonel Slatter, of this city, took his boat for Mobile to-day, on a tour devolved on the purpose of rousing up the hearts of the people, between that point and the Gulf of Nicaragua, to furnish the "sins of man" which he needs to go back and accomplish the task he has undertaken of Americanizing Nicaragua. It is his intention, we understand, to stop at all the principal intermediate points long enough to kindle the fire of Southern patriotism in each place, and we have no doubt the enthusiasm of Col. Slatter will prove a valuable auxiliary to the cause of the General, and that success will crown their exertions during the tour. A large proportion of the "material aid" necessary for the new expedition has been already procured, and it is confidently expected that the amount still wanting will be raised without difficulty. Alabama, Georgia, North and South Carolina and Virginia, under the direct appeals of Gen. Walker himself.—N. Orleans Delta.

LOCAL NEWS.

Correspondence of the Daily News, NEW YORK, July 29, 1857.

Mr. Editor,—The roasting heat of the last two or three days—from ninety to ninety-three degrees of Fahrenheit—though, doubtless, well enjoyed by the salamanders, has not been particularly favorable to either business or pleasure on the part of our citizens; and even the departments of both foreign and domestic news seem to be in a listless and languid condition. The large funeral procession in honor of the murdered policeman, Anderson, on Sunday, and the destruction of sixty or seventy valuable horses by an incendiary fire in Brooklyn, are the leading incidents of the week, thus far.

The accession of the two Mayors to the ranks of the Police Commissioners has not, as yet, been productive of any results—not even the choice of another commissioner in place of Mr. Draper, resigned. The Mayors wish the hour of meeting by the Board changed from 10 a. m., to 3 p. m., so as to enable their Honors to perform in the morning, as heretofore, certain duties incident to their municipal chief magistracy—but the Board has not yet assented to their request. Meantime, the ranks of the Police, as reorganized throughout the city, remain to a considerable extent unfilled—not much above one half the requisite number of men being as yet employed, and the full force of 1,200 men being probably needed to the public safety.

The steamer Illinois brings nearly a million and a half of dollars from California, but no news worth a sixpence. And by the North American at Quebec, from Liverpool, we have nothing of the least importance, beyond the fact that twenty-three native regiments had united in the anti-British rebellion in Southern Asia, and the city of Delhi was in the hands of the insurgents. The acquittal of Madeleine Smith, at Edinburgh, for poisoning her lover, is hardly worth mentioning, after the magnificent tragic comedy enacted by the Cunningham Burdell company at No. 31 Bond-street.

By the way, using a theatrical phrase, reminds me that they have been playing a burlesque on Shylock ("Merchant of Venice,") at Wallack's theatre, during the late roasting and broiling weather—and, what is, if possible, still more absurd, the papers say there was a "full house." "Full" of what, I should like to know?—for it is nearly inconceivable that people who have a thimble-full of common sense should, in such weather, deliberately thrust themselves, for several hours in succession, into places where a single breath of fresh and wholesome air is wholly impracticable. If all plays and play-going, during the dog-days, are not the most outrageous 'burlesque' on every thing in the shape of health and comfort, I should like to know what would be?

Coroner Connelly, who is a bit of an Irishman, and made such a distinguished Dogberry of himself by his half-witted attempts at humor on the Burdell inquest, has started a newspaper of his own, which he calls the Irish Vindictor. This is, I think, about the ninth regular Irish periodical now published in this city—two or three of which are mainly of a Catholic religious cast, and all the rest brawling and empty foes of Republicanism and supporters of the Sham Democracy. Their contempt for all Maine Laws and other restrictions upon the liquor traffic, is thorough-going and quite inexpressible. The special duty of the Coroner's "Vindictor," I presume, will be to justify these Irish operations in America. This, he could doubtless do, after a fashion, before an Irish jury—but how will he succeed, as respects an intelligent Protestant community, remains to be proved. I think, the daily records of drunkenness, at the several police courts, exhibit on an average, more Irish inebriates than all the other classes put together—and the cases of assault and battery are mainly of Irish origin, growing naturally out of drinking as a mushroom out of a dunghill. The way the Coroner will go to work to " vindicate" these things, will be to either deny them, or jump over them altogether—I shall be mistaken.

The foul among the Indian tribes at Tammany Hall is said to have been again revived and aggravated, till it is thought to be quite irreconcileable. There are now only three General Committees, and one Council of Sachems, each having a troop of followers and claiming to be the sole, proper and legitimate authority among the tribes. A very savage feeling naturally prevails among the chiefs and fighting men of the conflicting tribes. The allotment of the war-spoils is the great bone of contention.

There was some alarm yesterday about an alleged case of yellow fever in Williamsburgh—but the doctors are widely disagreed as to its actual character. The impression prevails that it was an ailment of no such formidable and terrific nature.

Total mortality of the city last week, 471—an increase of 97 over the previous week.

The man who attempted to catch the speaker's eye with a steel trap, was ordered to take the floor by the Sergeant-at-arms.

A gentleman who did not trust to his memory, wrote in his memorandum book—"Must be married when I get to town."

It is said that no fort ever suffered so much from a single battle as the piano forte from the battle of Prague.

The "Oswego Starch" for Laundries, and the "Oswego Corn Starch" for cooking, which are advertised in our columns, we can cheerfully recommend as the best articles of the kind ever brought to our observation, and those to which the highest need of praise is generally awarded. T. Kingsford & Sons, the manufacturers and proprietors of this domestic luxury, have been enabled only by long experience in their business to arrive at the happy standard of improvement which the public declare them to have attained. The value of "Corn Starch" as a diet for children and invalids is beginning to be vastly appreciated, and in such cases the greatest importance consists in having the pure article, we invite the attention of consumers to the "Oswego Starch" assuring them of its entire and unrivalled worthiness. See advertisement in Weekly Journal.

We are surprised to learn that our friend Bliss contemplates the sale of his valuable Real estate on Thames-street, together with his whole stock of goods, and the large quantity of tools and various implements necessary to carry on the Tin, Sheet Iron and Gas-fitting Business. Mr. B. has a good stand for business, and has monopolized a large share of it in this city—consequently, any one taking his place in this community, is possessed of common business talents, could hardly fail to find it a profitable one. See Advertisements.

We have received since yesterday's issue the July Number of "Blackwood"—the first of the eighty-second volume. The continuation of Bulwer's novel, "Janet's Repentance," a new story under the series—"Scenes of Clerical life," and a fine review of the life and writings of "Currier Bell" as exhibited in Mrs. Gaskell's biography, constitute some of the attractions of this present copy of "Maga." Published by Leonard Scott & Co., For sale at Tilley's.

NEW COUNTERFEIT.—An altered bill of the Metacomet Bank, of Fall River, Mass., has made its appearance. The denomination of one is changed to ten. The alteration has been done very adroitly, and is very well adapted to deceive a careless eye.

We learn from our exchanges that on the afternoon of the 22d inst., one of the most destructive hail storms ever witnessed passed near Red Hook, on the Hudson. The storm took a northeasterly direction, about two miles wide and ten long, leaving utter desolation as it passed along. Wheat crops are entirely destroyed, corn is leveled to the earth, and many of the farmers are plucking up their corn and planting buckwheat. Crops of oats, barley, &c., are also destroyed. The cattle suffered severely; whole flocks of turkeys were killed; not a pane of glass remains where that part was most exposed to the fury of the storm. The hail was very large, some stones being the size of a hen's egg. Several hailstones were picked up two days after the storm, and measured from two to three inches in circumference. The damage is immense, and falls severely upon some of the farmers.

A MAN AND HIS WIFE COMMITTED SUICIDE BY HANGING.—We learn from Erie, that about eight miles south of that city, near Waterford, on Friday last, a German named Shultz, or Schutz, committed some slight misdemeanor, for which he was threatened with an arrest by the over-zealous constable of the town. The constable even went so far as to demand $500 of Shultz, in order to settle the matter, or otherwise he would be taken "down the river" i. e., to the State Prison at Pittsburgh. Ignorant of the law, and of the powers and duties of the constable, and knowing that the amount would absorb all of his hard-earned property Shultz expressed his determination to his wife to die rather than to go to prison or pay the money. The matter was talked over between them, and she determined to follow his example. Having no children of their own, Shultz entrusted his money and valuable to an adopted son about fifteen years of age; on the evening of Friday, saying that he and his wife were going out, and if they did not return to go to the orchard in the morning. The boy remained in the house all night, and in the morning proceeded, as directed, to the orchard, where the lifeless bodies of both husband and wife were found suspended by one rope, to the limb of a tree. It appears that Shultz had fastened the rope first to the neck of his wife, then climbing into a tree he passed it over a limb, adjusted it to his own neck, and then jumped downward, the movement suspending both, and causing, probably, instant strangulation.—Buffalo Republican.

A gentleman who did not trust to his memory, wrote in his memorandum book—"Must be married when I get to town."

It is said that no fort ever suffered so much from a single battle as the piano forte from the battle of Prague.

SUICIDE OF A LYNNCHER CAUSED BY REMOKE.—In Cedar County, Iowa, a young man named Finch, son of a Church deacon, and a member of a vigilance committee, led by civil commissioners and the counsels of men who should have set a better example, was present when the life or death of two horse thieves, one named Kelso, was hanging in the balance, and when the fatal hat came round Finch dropped into it his ballot inscribed with the word "death." On counting the ballots, a majority were found to have declared that the culprit should die, and Kelso and his comrade were accordingly hung to a neighboring tree. Young Finch, after witnessing their dying struggles, went home, when his Christian mother anxiously asked him if the thieves had been caught. "Yes," he told her, "and hung, and he had voted to hang them." His mother sadly and solemnly told him he had no right unlawfully to take that which he could not give—the life of a fellow being—and continued for a few moments to speak of the enormity of the act. He then left her and went out to plow, but after plowing a few furrows, he tied his horse, took off one of the reins, and with it hung himself to the lower limb of a tree. When found, his knees almost touched the ground, and he evidently could have arisen to his feet at pleasure, had he changed his purpose before insensibility supervened. All attempts to restore the unhappy youth to life proved useless. The affair produced considerable feeling among the members of the vigilance committee.—Prov. Trans.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

READ! READ! READ!—"Ye af- fected read" the following Certificate of a cure of over 20 years' standing:

J. T. HELMOLD.—Dear Sir:—I have been troubled with an affliction of the Bladder and Kidneys for over twenty years. I have tried physicians in vain, and at last concluded to give you genuine preparation a trial, as I had heard it highly spoken of. It afforded me immediate relief. I have used three bottles, and I have obtained more relief from its effects and much better than I have for twenty years previous. I have the greatest faith in its virtues and curative powers, and shall do all in my power to make it known to the afflicted. Hoping this may prove advantageous to you in assisting you to introduce the medicine. I am truly yours, M. McCormick.

ALPINE HAIR BALM

for Restoring Gray Hair to Its Original Color.

WARRANTED to cure Baldness, Seur Dandruff, itching and all diseases of the skin. This Balm gives the scalp a new and healthy action; restores the coloring matter to the roots of the Hair, which passes through the Hair, and gives it a natural color without the use of a Dye.

Hundreds of preparations have been introduced, pretending to preserve the Hair and keep it from falling off, composed of Oils, and all to no use. Hair Dyes have been introduced that do not give the Hair a natural color, besides being troublesome to use. This Balm is not a Dye. Knowing that a preparation was needed to do what was required for the Hair, the proprietor was induced to experiment until he could obtain an article that would be the exact remedy. It is soothing and emollient, allays all irritation of the scalp, thereby stopping that troublesome itching. It cures Dandruff and Seur, and when the Hair has turned gray it will bring it back to its original color be it Black, Brown or Auburn. It makes the Hair soft and glossy—prevents it from falling off, as will be seen by using this Balm for only a few days—life will be given to the roots of the Hair, and growth will soon appear. Growth does not take place at the end of the Hair, as will be seen in persons who have their Hair dyed. If you examine gray hair that has been dyed for a week, you will find towards the roots that the hair has come out gray, hence it is necessary to have the fluid at the roots of the hair healthy, that the whole hair may be a natural color. Each hair has a root in the skin, and is of itself a hollow, gray tube, through which there is a constant circulation of the pigment from the root. When this pigment coloring matter dies out, it leaves the hair hollow and it becomes gray. To invent a Balm that would produce this pigment has become the study of the proprietor. The discovery of the Alpine Hair Balm will do it. It will bring the Hair to its natural color by making anew the coloring matter in the roots of the hair.

It is a mistaken notion that oil or grease will restore the hair, as nothing can be more injurious. The Alpine Hair Balm, will restore the skin and save the hair of those who have been sick with fever or disease.

Dread for fear of themselves; no repose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—soon follows Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits—in one of which the patient may expire. Who cannot say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those dreadful diseases—Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sullen and quite destitute—neither mirth or grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur it is rarely articulate.

YOUNG'S

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRUNSWICK, Mass., 20th Dec., 1856.
Dr. J. O. AYER: I do not believe to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Inflammation, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. It is constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years, has shown it to be the most important remedy for the cure of Colds, and especially for the cure of Hoarseness.
AYER KNOWS, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., New York, N. Y., writes: "I have your PECTORAL, and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for any purpose you put out. With a half cold I should soon pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.
SPRINGFIELD, Miss., Feb. 7, 1856.

Brother AYER: Will you kindly certify our PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chief diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your Skill, and commend our medicine to our people.

AMOS LEE, Esq., Worcester, Mass., Feb. 4, 1856.
It had a tedious Influenza, I had a severe attack of it about six weeks; took many medicines without relief, then tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our physician. The first dose relieved the sorrow in my throat and tongue; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisis, and Bronchitis.
WEST MANCHESTER, Pa., Feb. 4, 1856.

SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvelous miracles in this section. It has relieved suffers from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is curing a man who has labored under an affliction of consumption for the last forty years. HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M.D., ALBION, Monroe Co., N. Y., writes, Sept. 1, 1856: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.
